

REDDay2013

Designing Ambitious Renovation Programmes in the EU

Welcome and Introduction

24 Partner Companies and Associations:

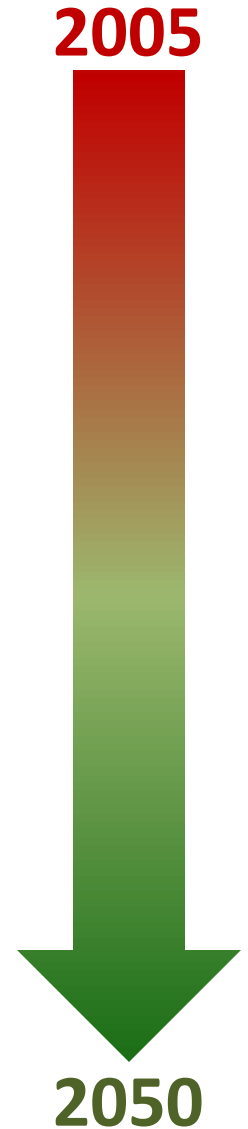

Working Together to:

Reduce the Energy Demand of the

Existing EU Building Stock by 80% by 2050

as Compared to 2005

The Known Benefits:

New Local Direct Jobs:

Up to 2 Million by 2020

Reduced Fuel Poverty and Increased Health

Significant Boost to Local Economy and Recovery

REDay2013 Will:

Deepen Our Understanding of
How to Achieve Our Objectives
Inform on Latest Thinking on Roadmaps and Financing Facilitate Interaction Between Stakeholders

Progress Since REDay2012:

European Parliament Echoes Our Ambition in Report

Copenhagen Study Sent to ALL Ministries of Finance

Invitation to Address ALL

Ministers of Energy - Dublin

Looking Ahead:

Increased Focus on Long-Term Renovation Roadmaps

Increased Buy-in From Key Stakeholders e.g. Financing

Building Political Ambition in a Time of Change – National Level

The Day Ahead:

Morning Conference: Roadmaps and Financing

Networking Lunch at Thon Hotel

Afternoon Debate: OPEN DAYS
Committee of the Regions

Exhibitions:

Energy Cities Display© Campaign at Back of Room

100 EUrban Solutions

Committee of the Regions

Other Information:

All Presentations Will be Posted on REC Website

Yes – Extra Piggy Banks Are Available (while stocks last!)

Don't Forget to Tweet:

#REDay2013

@RenovateEurope

#euopendays

Together We Can Achieve the REC Ambition!

www.renovate-europe.eu