

BREAKFAST DEBATE

Energy Renovation—What's In It for Consumers?

Wednesday 15th June
8.00 - 9.30

European Parliament
Members Restaurant

How can increased energy renovation of buildings make the Energy Union a success for citizens? What opportunities arise in 2016 to create a real renovation market that will bring added value to European consumers? How can the revisions of the Energy Performance of Buildings Directive and the Energy Efficiency Directive contribute to reduced energy costs, improved health and wellbeing, higher property value, and increased job creation and competitiveness?

Hosted by MEP Theresa Griffin and organised by Renovate Europe, this breakfast debate will focus on consumer interests in achieving Nearly Zero Energy Building (NZEB) standards by 2050 for the building stock in the EU.

- 8.00 Introductory words
Adrian Joyce, Renovate Europe
- 8.10 Getting a Better Deal for Vulnerable Consumers through Energy Renovation
Theresa Griffin, MEP
- 8.20 Consumers at the heart of the Energy Union: Forthcoming EU policy developments
Peter Handley, European Commission
- 8.30 Creating a Real Renovation Market for EU Citizens: Findings from ongoing analysis of EU laws
Yamina Saheb, OpenExp
- 8.40 An NZEB Building Stock fit for Consumers: How to get there
Sorcha Edwards, Housing Europe
- 8.50 Alleviating poor poverty in the EU: Key findings from the BPIE Study
Aleksandra Arcipowska, BPIE
- 8.55 Questions and debate with key MEPs and stakeholders present
- 9.20 Concluding Remarks
Adrian Joyce, Renovate Europe

